

St. Joseph Immigrant Women's Centre

"Immigrant and refugee women fully participating in a just and supportive Canadian Society"

Is seeking

Two New Members for the Board of Directors

The Immigrant Women's Centre is an equality seeking anti-racist, non-profit, charitable organization committed to the social, political and economic inclusion of refugee and immigrant women in Hamilton and across Canada.

Funded by the three levels of Government the organization, the organization recognizes the differences that evolve from immigrant women's unequal access to power and resources and continuously seeks alliances with other civil society actors who are building movements towards equality.

The organization is seeking two Board Members with ability and expertise in at least one of the following areas:

- Finance/Accounting
- Marketing/public Relations

The Board meets once per month on the 3rd Monday of every month, from 4:00pm to 6:30pm, ten months of the year.

The Board's style of Governance follows the Carver Model. The Board is committed to adding members that reflect the diversity of Hamilton and welcome inquires from any individual who feel that they are ready and able to positively contribute to the Board of Directors and the Centre's mission.

Please contact the Chair of the Nominating committee via e-mail with any questions and or to provide and indication of your interest and your resume. Prospective Board Members will be interviewed by the Nominating Committee.

Contact Information

Anne Flanagan
Chair Nominating Committee
St. Joseph Immigrant Women's Centre
e-mail: radar@mountaincable.net